

Donovan Discussion Questions

What do you see?

Does it remind you of any other artworks you have seen? (ex. Judd)

What does it make you feel? Do you want to touch it?

Can you tell what it is made of?

How do you think she made it? How do you think she got the idea to make it?

Do you think you could make this?

Why do you think she took the time to make it?

Why do you think she chose not to use glue?

Does not having any glue make it more interesting?

What kind of sculpture is it? (ex. Landscape, not landscape, or a combination)

Can you think of a movement that it would fit into? (ex. Minimalism)

Do you think it should be considered art?